

NOV 2007 – Engage Learning, Inc. was selected to provide reading and math coaching, and on-site support staff development and administrative support for ten Schools as a part of the Bureau of Indian (BIE) FOCUS PROJECT. They are:

Chi-Chi'il'tah Community School, Vanderwagen, NM
Lake Valley Navajo School, Crownpoint, NM
Ojo Encino Day School, Cuba, NM
San Felipe Pueblo Elementary, San Felipe Pueblo, NM
San Ildefonso Day School, Santa Fe, NM
San Simon School, Sells, AZ
Santa Rosa Boarding School, Sells, AZ
Santa Rosa Ranch School, Sells, AZ
Tohaali' Community School, Newcomb, NM
Tohono O'odham High School, Sells, AZ

According to the official Scope of Work, “The mission of the FOCUS PROJECT is to provide administrative, educational leadership and instructional support to schools in order to promote a quality education system. The purpose of the FOCUS PROJECT is to provide support to schools in order to meet adequate yearly progress (AYP) goals. The project will provide intensive support to schools in the areas of reading instruction, math instruction, data analysis, curriculum alignment and mapping, and effective instructional leadership practices.”

Engage Learning will collaborate with InformedED, Reale Studios, Skookum Creek Resources, and Kokopelli Consultants to carry out the mission of the BIE FOCUS PROJECT and meet the needs of the 14 schools selected as FOCUS PROJECT Sites.